

St. Kieran Parish

Pentecost Sunday May 24, 2015

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts
but the same Spirit.

— 1 Corinthians 12:4

Notes from Fr. Tom

Pentecost is the 'grand finale' of our Eastertime celebration; it is the fiftieth and final day of the season. It is filled with images of fire and wind and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples of Jesus - and not just the disciples of long ago.

Why is it so hard for us to believe that Jesus is able to keep his promise and be present in each of our lives? Why do we downplay the signs of God's goodness active in the choices for good that we can make and in those times of love and compassion that others extend to us? No one of us lives 'ordinary' lives because the Spirit of God has been poured into each of us. Take the time to notice and revel in this living presence of God in your life. Put into words and share your experience of God with someone. We have each been given the power to speak the language of faith, hope and love. Do not let fear 'stifle the Spirit' that is alive in you and desiring to reach out to touch our world with signs of his love - signs that you and you alone have been chosen to bring to others.

Come, Holy Spirit, come. Give us your wisdom and understanding.
Loosen our tongues to bless and praise the Father and the son for the great gift we received at our baptism, when we came to birth in your life-giving grace. Increase our faith so we might proclaim with all our hearts, "Jesus is Lord!"

Prayer taken from Living the Word
by Dianne Bergant, C.S.A. &
Rev. James Wallace, C.Ss.R.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in different tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Galatians 5:16-25.

Gospel — As the Father has sent me, so I send you: Receive the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23) or John 15:26-27; 16:12-15.

Religious Education

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc

Dear Friends,

Just as today's celebration of Pentecost brings the season of Easter to a close, this article brings my academic year to an end. As I have in the past, I will be taking a bulletin hiatus until August. I will be on vacation as you read this, and the Religious Education office will be closed until Wednesday, June 10. I truly appreciate and take to heart all your kind words, suggestions, and offers of help. This is a wonderful place to work!

When I return to work in a couple of weeks, I will be actively seeking volunteer catechists and classroom aides. We have lost several volunteers due to work and school schedules, and it's time to replenish the R.E. faculty. No experience necessary, just love of God and His children are required to be a successful catechist. Catechists generally spend 1.5 to 2 hours in the classroom and 30 to 60 minutes in preparation each week for 24 weeks. Please consider donating your time and talent to this worthwhile endeavor—the benefits are heavenly!

Happy Memorial Day!

Teri Klopp

A BIG THANK YOU . . .

We would like to extend our thanks to all of our parishioners who continually donate to our outreach ministry, St. Kieran Cares. Through your support, our parishioners in need have been helped with Aldi's food certificates, utility payments (electricity—heating fuel—water,) and vehicle repairs. Just recently, the fund was able to assist one of our parishioners gain access to her home, which otherwise would have been impossible due to the fact that she must use a wheelchair and is unable to walk.

We, again, express our thanks to you, the generous parishioners of our parish family, for caring for those of our parish who are in the greatest need. Our work remains strictly confidential to protect those whom we serve. May God bless all of you for the blessings you give to His people.

The Members of the St. Kieran Cares Committee

Are you unable to come to Church?

For those who are unable to come to Church on a regular basis and who might like to have Holy Communion brought to them at home are asked simply to contact the business office. Our Ministers of Communion will be more than glad to keep this connection with our praying parish community happening. May our prayers and encouragement continue to go with those who need to know that they are not forgotten.

Food Drive Sunday is Coming!!!

Our next Food Drive Sunday will be held the weekend of May 30/31!

A list of needed supplies is in the bulletin and is also available by the food bin. Our St. Kieran shopping bags are also available in the food bin for our parishioners to take home and fill, if they have the means. If you can't fill a bag, please consider bringing a few cans or boxes of food stuffs for the collection. Make sure your donation is here, in the food bin, by Saturday and Sunday, May 30/31.

Due to your overwhelming response to last month's Food Drive, the Catholic Charities Food Pantry were able to make sure that those in need had enough food on their tables! We thank you in advance for your continued generosity in reaching out to those who need it most. God bless you all for your efforts on behalf of God's people!

VETTECH IS COMING AGAIN TO ST. KIERAN!!

SUNDAY, JUNE 7 FROM 7 A.M. TO 1 P.M.

During our regular Recycle Rally, Robin Dupry from VetTech will be on campus to accept your donations of used electronics. The VetTech Organization will take anything that has a plug EXCEPT FOR TELEVISION SETS. These electronics will be put into a electronic waste recycling bin and picked up THE SAME DAY by the VetTech Organization. The hard drives will be destroyed and the electronics will be reused, if that is possible, or recycled.

The VetTech Organization, a member of the Keeling Family Foundation, educates and employs United States Veterans through this free electronic waste recycling program.

To find out further information about VetTech, please visit their website at www.VetTech.US and find out all about this wonderful organization.

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Survive

Across a lifetime, if we regularly participate in the Mass, we receive Holy Communion so many times that we can scarcely count them. And this is a very good thing. We keep returning to receive the Eucharist in order to survive. An old Latin hymn calls the Eucharist esca viatorum, which means "the food of travelers." It is an apt description of this great and wonderful sacrament.

We find ourselves on the road of life, and a bumpy road it is. We encounter smooth paths but also rough patches. We go straight ahead at times, but we also need to make detours. The journey can be arduous. We need sustenance. We need what it takes to survive. And that is the Eucharist, the sacrament of sustaining love and hope. With the Eucharist, we can keep moving with the knowledge that we are loved. With the Eucharist, we can advance because we know that we have a holy destination. With the Eucharist, we can survive the journey.
