Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 10, 2017

“If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father.”
— Matthew 18:19

Notes from Fr. John

Today we celebrate the Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. Last week in my homilies I spoke about picking up our crosses and following Jesus. In the homily, I said we all bear personal crosses, but that the greatest cross we bear is that of being Christian. This week our Scripture points it out again. In the book of Ezekiel, we are charged to tell each other when we see a wrong committed. If we don't we are as guilty as the one sinning. The Gospel says the same, but it adds a twist. When the sinner doesn't listen, we are to treat them as we would a "tax collector or Gentile". How did Jesus treat tax collectors and gentiles? Jesus welcomed them and continued to walk with them. So, in the eyes of Jesus no one is disposable. This week President Trump threw out the DACA initiative that protected young immigrants who were brought here as children and had no choice in the matter. They didn't commit a crime as some may say their parents did, and they are contributing to the economy. They can't receive DACA status if they committed a crime. They pay into social security but can't receive benefits because they haven't worked for ten years. They are teachers, lab technicians, soldiers, etc. In fact, their expulsion will have a bad effect on our economy. So why now? And before you speak about law and order, remember this is the President who just pardoned a sheriff who was convicted of a crime. This is the cross we bear. We know what is right even if we don't like it, because Jesus taught us. As we wait for our Social Security checks, or use our Medicare benefits and soon designate billions for disaster relief (as we should!), remember those fighting for health care, or a chance to stay in this country and contribute to our common good.

Next Sunday we will be celebrating the St. Kieran Parish picnic. The picnic begins at 11:00 AM after the 10:00 AM mass and ends at 3:00 PM. Thanks to the Barkers for all the food and Zarlengo's for the Italian Ice. Music will be provided by Midlife Crisis. This year there will also be a petting zoo and pony rides. Add in some antique cars, and I am not talking about Fr. Tom's, we have quite a day. Thanks to Sheila Porrata and family for their work at organizing the day and making it happen. Finally, thanks to all of the volunteers who work with the leaders to make it a success. Invite your family and friends as we celebrate Saint Kieran.

Finally, today we will be having a second collection for Hurricane relief. This collection is being taken up in every Catholic Church in the country. As we celebrate today we know that another storm now threatens our country and we pray for the relief of those affected by the storms. But prayer isn't always enough; today we are called to action. Please be as generous as you can. Thank You.

Last but not least we want to congratulate Dawn Sterning for receiving the Woman of the Year from the St. Kieran Women's Club. Dawn joins a long list of parishioners who have worked hard for the Women's Club and the parish. Thanks Dawn and congratulations!!

Our Patron Saint: St. Kieran of Clonmacnoise

The Vision of the Great Tree

While in the Aran Islands with St. Enda, both monks saw the same vision of a great and fruitful tree growing on the banks of a stream in central Ireland. This tree sheltered the entire island, its fruit crossed the sea surrounding Ireland, and birds came to carry off some of that fruit to the rest of the world. Enda interpreted this vision for his friend by saying, "The great tree is you, Kieran, for you are great in the eyes of God and all people. All of Ireland will be sheltered by the grace in you and many will be nourished by your fasting and prayers. Go to the center of Ireland and found your church on the banks of a stream."

A Cow Comes to Kieran's Aid

A careless monk dropped Kieran's text of the Gospels into the lake surrounding Hare Island where it remained under water for a long time. On a summer day when the cattle went into the lake, the strap of Kieran's book stuck to the foot of one of the cows. When the book was retrieved, it was dry with not a letter blurred or a page destroyed.

See more of St. Kieran's Clonmacnoise in our own church vestibule! A number of years ago, some of our parishioners visited the ruins of St. Kieran's monastery at Clonmacnoise as they were on pilgrimage to the spot. An exhibit of some of the photographs that they took during that trip is on permanent display at the east side of the church vestibule. Our own Celtic Cross in the vestibule is a replica of the same cross from Clonmacnoise.

We will celebrate the feast of St. Kieran of Clonmacnoise the weekend of September 17, 2017. Please join us for these special liturgies that honor our patron saint.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Over the past few days, we have heard and witnessed many heartbreaking stories and images from areas affected by Hurricane Harvey. The damage caused by the storm and flooding has been catastrophic, resulting in multiple deaths and injuries, destroyed homes and businesses, and thousands of displaced people seeking shelter. Intense rainfall will continue in Texas and Louisiana throughout the next few days, causing further harm.

During this time of great need, I invite you to stand in solidarity with our brothers and sisters in the Gulf Coast region. All parishes in the Archdiocese of Chicago are strongly encouraged to take up a second collection at all Masses on Saturday, September 9 and Sunday, September 10. Proceeds from this special collection will support the humanitarian and recovery efforts of Catholic Charities USA and provide support to affected dioceses through the USCCB. To donate, please visit <http://pvm.archchicago.org/harvey> or mail contributions to the following address:

ATTN: Hurricane Harvey Emergency Appeal

Chicago, IL 60653

Your generous support of this collection will make a difference to our brothers and sisters suffering in the wake of this natural disaster. It is my prayer that as we renew our own archdiocese, we support the renewal of Gulf Coast Catholic communities that will grapple with its effects for many months to come. With every good wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH RESPONDS WITH RELIEF EFFORTS

The Catholic Church in America is providing assistance to the residents in the path of Hurricane/ Tropical Storm Harvey in the gulf areas, especially Houston, of Texas and Louisiana.

Catholic Charities USA is in the midst of their emergency fund campaign to help in the recovery efforts. If you would like to make a donation, you may do so in the following ways:

1.) First of all, if you are proficient in the internet, you may go to the following web address:

<https://pvm.archchicago.org/harvey>

This is the official web site of the Archdiocese of Chicago and it lists the many ways in which you may participate in the recovery efforts.

2.) Secondly, if you prefer to use a credit/debit card you may go to www.givecentral.org and make a donation on line to "Hurricane Harvey Emergency Appeal."

3.) Lastly, you may send a check or money order to:

Hurricane Harvey Emergency Appeal

And, as always, prayers are always needed for our brothers and sisters who are hurting. We all feel their pain! God bless you all for any help you can give.
